WOMEN WILL AID SLATE COMMITTEE

To Work in Harmony With Men in Republican Campaign, Says Mrs. Warburton

REVISE RULES TOMORROW

Republican women in the State will work in harmony with the Republican State Committee, according to Mrs. Barclay H. Warburton, chairman of the Women's Committee.

Mrs. Warburton will confer with Senator Crow, chairman of the Republican State Committee, and make recommendations for the appointment of women to each of the fifty senatorial districts throughout Pennsylvania.

The State body will meet at the Bellevue-Stratford tomorrow, when it is proposed to revise rules of the organization to admit women legally.

Senator Crow will appoint one woman for each senatorial district to serve until the regular election next spring.
